

Gandhi Service Fellowship Program

The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others. - Gandhi

The M.K. Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence is recruiting Gandhi Service Fellows for the 2018-19 academic school year. This program is for Rochester area college undergraduate and graduate students, who can receive mentoring and budgetary support from the Gandhi Institute to implement their service project.

Gandhi Service Fellowship Objectives:

- Design and implement a service project aligned with course work and/or passion
- Learn nonviolence education through monthly group meetings at the Gandhi Institute
- Receive monthly mentoring support from Gandhi Institute staff and board members

PROJECT TIMELINE:

★ = Individual mentoring meetings

● = Final Project Presentation

APPLICATION DUE SEPTEMBER 21—SEE BACK FOR DETAILS.

Gandhi Service Fellowship Program Application

---

The M.K. Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence is seeking undergraduate and graduate students interested in designing and implementing a service project that pairs with nonviolence.

Through montly individual and group meetings, Gandhi Service Fellows will gain a background in nonviolence education as a framework for their service project. Mentoring with Gandhi Institute staff and board members will be made available, in addition to budgetary support.

Service projects will be evaluated on their creativity, vision, and thoughtful planning.

---

Please provide a 1-2 page response to the six questions listed below:

1. The social problem I'd like to address through service is...It matters to me because...
2. What are the goals of your project?
3. Please provide a detailed description of your project.
4. Will you need assistance or special permission in order to complete this project?
If so, how will you make sure you receive it?
5. How does your service project pair with an aspect of nonviolence?
6. Provide an estimate budget for your potential project.

Please submit the following application to the Gandhi Institute by September 21st by emailing maria@gandhiinstitute.org or mail it to: 929 S Plymouth Avenue, Rochester, NY 14608.

Follow us: @rocnonviolence

